

Manchester PRIDE Market 2010

28, 29 and 30 August 2010, Chorlton Street, Manchester Village.

Application Form

Manchester Pride Market – Manchester Pride is one of the country’s biggest celebrations of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender culture. This exciting and lively event is staged in the gay village and attracts thousands of people over the 3 days of the August Bank Holiday. This is an all ticketed event, so the market customers will be people who wish to join in the fun of Manchester Pride and have an affinity with the lesbian and gay community.

This market attracts a wide range of traders and products unique to this type of event, some you might not see every day, and some may possibly be explicit adult material. Please only apply if you are open to the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender culture and environment.
